

2019 Jane Franklin Hall
Semester 2 Welcome Week
Program of Events

8 July – 14 July

Statement on the College Culture of Jane Franklin Hall

Jane Franklin Hall welcomes the recommendations of Change the Course, the 2017 Australian Human Rights Commission Report on sexual assault and sexual harassment at Australian Universities.

We are fully supportive of the University of Tasmania's response to Change the Course including recommendations from an independent review, conducted by Indira Rosenthal and Robin Banks.

We actively participated in an independent review, commissioned by the University of Tasmania and conducted by Nous Consulting in late 2018. For 2019, we have commissioned our own external review to be conducted by former Chancellor of the University of Tasmania, Mr Damien Bugg QC.

Additionally, our College Council's Sub-Committee on Culture is guided by the recommendations made in former Australian Sex Discrimination Commissioner, Elizabeth Broderick's Report, Cultural renewal at the University of Sydney Residential Colleges.

At Jane, we believe strongly in honesty and transparency. We have not, and never will say that we are above reproach. What we can say is that we have made a commitment to the wellbeing of our residents and that we will continue to be vigilant in providing a supportive, enriching environment for all.

Jane is a values-based community and we are driven by our Strategic Direction 2016-2020, that explicitly advocates respect for all. All members of the Jane community sign a Code of Conduct each year agreeing to act respectfully towards their peers, regardless of race, culture, age, abilities, religion, gender alignment or sexual orientation.

Sexual assault and sexual harassment, drug taking, hazing and bullying are forbidden. We have no hesitation in referring matters to the police and/or the University, nor in asking residents to leave College if they are considered a threat to other members of the community.

Our College has a strong focus on respectful relationships. Derogatory, sexist and offensive chants or songs are prohibited. All students are expected to complete online training about boundaries and consent before they arrive at Jane. Information sessions for students on the topic of respectful relationships are held during Welcome Weeks. We actively work to improve inclusion at the College. Our residential staff and student leaders receive dynamic training, mentoring and encouragement to promote a safe and inclusive collegiate environment and foster positive change within the University community. Most importantly, our students are actively challenged to accept responsibility as young adults.

We don't see any of the above actions as the final word. We know that honest review must be unceasing as we strive towards providing a positive collegiate experience for all our students. As the leaders of our college, we commit wholeheartedly to all considered, compassionate measures to strengthen our community: this, we believe, is the only way to truly deliver on our mission of providing a life-enhancing experience for all at Jane.

Jane Franklin Hall Welcome Week Mission

We at Jane Franklin Hall strive to achieve a safe, supportive and inclusive community that fosters friendship, collegiality and personal growth amongst all residents.

The Welcome Week Mission has been developed as a cooperative effort of the Jane Student Club, Senior Residents and Management Team.

Alcohol at Jane during Welcome Week

Some residential Colleges are dry: Jane is not. At Jane, we allow residents who are over 18 to drink alcohol. As a rule of thumb our guiding principle for alcohol consumption is providing you don't damage yourself, others, property or reputation in any shape or form, then you can have a drink.

The reason for our approach is because, in a society that allows adults to consume alcohol, we believe it is important for our students to learn how to drink responsibly. This means, amongst other things:

- knowing your limits
- saying no
- being able to enjoy yourself without drinking alcohol
- never forcing anyone to drink alcohol, either by subtle coercion or by overt pressure
- allowing those who don't drink to not drink - and respecting their decision
- understanding the consequences of drinking too much
- understanding that many people are confronted by a culture of too much alcohol
- understanding that excessive alcohol consumption can bring out aggression, damage relationships, cause people to do things they would not otherwise so, and sometimes commit dangerous – or, sadly, even criminal – acts.

Many students at Jane choose not to drink either because they don't like the taste, they can't afford it, they don't like what it does to people or it is not part of their family or cultural habits. That is totally OK.

While we have no hesitation in strictly disciplining those who breach our rules, we hope we never need to. Part of being in our community is respecting all: we hope that the same level of trust we give in not being a dry college is reciprocated in the behaviour and actions of our students. That is the Jane way.

Welcome

You are warmly welcomed to our community of scholars here at Jane. We are proud of our College - its history, its people and its deep connections to the University of Tasmania.

Your experience here will be what you make of it because as a resident you have an important role to play. By offering you a place in our College, we already believe that you will make a positive contribution to our community.

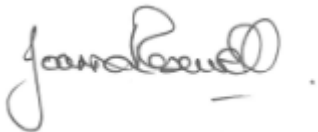

Everyone in the Jane community is committed to your success. Please use all of the resources we provide to make your time with us, everything we, and you, would wish it to be.

You will also find that we refer very often to the Jane values. I ask that as a resident you commit to these and play your part in making these real in your everyday activities. In doing so, you will be contributing to the College's vision of producing the future leaders, thinkers and innovators of our society. One day, we hope you will be celebrated as one of those.

I hope your time at Jane will be rewarding and enriching, a place where lifelong friendships are made and where you stride towards the next stages of your life.

I am always available for a chat and look forward to getting to know you.

Welcome!
